Mr. Simis said Mr. Quintard, while Supervisor-a-Large, appointed Nolan and Murphy Charittes Commissioners. After his term expired Nolan and Murphy Charittes Commissioners, after his term expired Nolan and Murphy made him counsel to the Board, and also increased his saiary from $2,500 to $3,500.

Mr. Simis said at that time Mr. Quintard only a short time.

Mr. Simis also found the chief engineer of the department was drawing $3,000 a year, although he could find no record of any resolution giving him more than $2,500. Subsequently it was learned McKenna made up the pay-roll and practically fixed the rate of his own compensation. The Board of Charittes Commissioners passed a resolution to complex the could be a received in excess of his proper salary.

The resolution was subsequently reschided, the board being advised that the fact of its having been passed as correct made McKenna's salary legal.

Commissioner Adolph Simis, the first ing. He said the Distric:-Attorney was witness, testified that he assumed office willing that Judge Steckler should go in September, 1886. At the present time on with his argument this morning,

Mr. Steckler held the Collins law is entire citizenship. He added:

It is a "trange anomaly that a barber may shave at one piace in the State on Sunday without incurring the path and penalty of the criminal law, and for doing the same thing in another locality in the same State he is liable to fine and imprisonment. Such a law ought to be condemned by all. It interfered with the rights of the people. It takes from the people of Brooklyn the rights given to the people of the city of New York. In a free country no such law should be permitted to blot the attaute book. Such a law works great injustice and hardship. It favore certain classes and certain localities, upholding that which is done in those exempted localities and condemning and punishing by inprisonment and fine the doing of the same act in other localities.
